

About the Author / Seminar Presenter

Stanley Helm, JD, has experience as an attorney, CPA and educator. Mr. Helm is a graduate of Creighton University College of Law in Omaha, Nebraska. He has worked in the tax and litigation support departments of Big 4 CPA firms and as VP of Finance for publicly held companies, as well as an advisor to companies raising venture capital, merging and completing Initial Public Offerings. Stan has been instrumental in guiding several businesses through turnarounds and business sales. Stan has over 20 years experience teaching graduate and undergraduate university courses in business law, taxation, finance and accounting. He has authored several books on related topics and is a frequent speaker for continuing education seminars for attorneys and CPAs.